

COURSE CODE: HSM 301
COURSE TITLE: CLOTHING CONSTRUCTION
NUMBER OF UNITS: 2 Units
COURSE DURATION:

---

COURSE DETAILS:

Course Coordinator: Dr. Adetoun, A. Amubode
Email: amuboto@yahoo.com
Office Location: Department of Home Science & Management,
Other Lecturers:

COURSE CONTENT:

Measurement yardage estimates. Application of introductory course work to the construction of sewn and knitted garments.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Students are to bring in their items for practical demonstration. The finished practical work should be of high standard. Students' practical works are to be exhibited for evaluation. Students are encouraged to make their own notes during and after lectures.

READING LIST:

LECTURE NOTES

METHOD OF GRADING:

Attendance –	10%
Practical Assessment -	30%
Exhibition	-20 %
Examination	-40%
TOTAL	-100 %

COURSE DELIVERY STRATEGIES:

Students are expected to have 75% attendance at lectures to be qualified to sit for the examination, actively participate in class, and carry out all assignments. All forms of indiscipline attitudes would not be tolerated in the class. Students are to personally construct all practical works. Students are encouraged to have personal sewing machine for skill acquisition and continuous practice after office hours. All practical works are to be done in the laboratory. Any student who takes his/her work to a commercial tailor will attract a 0 score.

LECTURE CONTENT:

Week 1-4

- Drafting of patterns and Construction of the first article/garment designed.

Week 5-7

- Drafting and construction of the second selected article/garment.

Week 8-10

- Drafting and construction of the third selected article/garment.

Week 11

- Exhibition of the articles and garments constructed.

Week 12

- Assessment